

RE•WORK

Employee Values and Ideals

Here at RE•WORK we pride ourselves on the character of our staff. We work hard and enjoy what we do, while cultivating a culture of respect, creativity and collaboration as a team.

To be a RE•WORKer you will have the following values and ideals:

You will have a positive, enthusiastic attitude and be a highly-organised, hard and fast worker.

You will be a 'can do' person, somebody who seeks out challenges and areas of growth for the business, going the extra mile to ensure the team's success.

You will thrive under pressure and be comfortable juggling multiple responsibilities.

You will be a very clear and confident communicator, able to interact and get the best out of your relationships with colleagues, partners and event attendees.

You will be self-motivated, and enjoy taking ownership and accountability of your role.

You should be a supportive team player, and conscientious to other team members – measuring your success by the whole team's performance.

You will be creative with your approach to work, and not afraid to share ideas and suggestions.

You will strive to improve yourself and your work, asking for help and support when needed and continuing to learn at every opportunity.